Presents

Celebrity Theatresports™

Impro Melbourne's annual Celebrity Theatresports has been a Comedy Festival institution for the past 25 years.

Every April, Australia's favourite TV and radio personalities join Impro Melbourne on stage at the historic National Theatre, St. Kilda.

Celebrities that will take the stage this year: Cal Wilson (Good News Week), Tom Gleeson (7pm Project) and Julia Zemiro (RockWiz).

Every scene will be made up on the spot. That's right! The celebrities have no scripts, no rehearsal and no time to dawdle in front of the 750 strong audience. But with seasoned Improvisers by their side, unforgettable tales unfold.

In 2011, Celebrity Theatresports returns to an earlier showtime (2pm), so festival-goers can cram more comedy into one day. Bring the kids, bring your granny, bring your pioneering spirit, and start your Comedy Fest early.

Directing this one-off spectacular is Impro Melbourne veteran Jason Geary (Skithouse, The Micallef Program, Welcher and Welcher)
