THE THIRD ANNUAL HALLOWEEN CLASSIC

'Tis Halloween and Impro Melbourne is brewing up a tempting weekend of impro tricks and treats featuring ghoulish guests from across Australia and New Zealand.

The Halloween Classic features 3 different programs of stunning improvisational theatre.

Friday 31 October – 3 shows

Impro Magnifique - A travelling French impro company are invited to perform and voila! Instant fun!

All Together Now - A show where the actors act, but are also the props, staging and scenery.

Fortune - Destiny unveiled, an audience member's future is foretold by oracles of Impro Melbourne.

Saturday 1 November – 3 shows

Grandpa Willard's Bedtime Stories – Let Grandpa tell you amazing stories and watch them come to life.

The Wishing Tree - Imagine a world where all your dreams come true...

Pia Zadora - Pia was a much maligned actress from the 1980s. This show is nothing like Ms Zadora really....

Sunday 2 November

A special spooky night of TheatresportsTM - mighty thespians spring onto the stage to face each other in epic battles of improvised wit and prowess.

Join us in the dark as the spirits of impro, forever cursed to entertain, make you shriek with laughter.

The Halloween Classic - it's a scream!
