

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The return of Derek Flores from the 3 Canadians!

Impro Melbourne is delighted to announce the return of Derek Flores to the International Melbourne Comedy Festival for 2 exclusive appearances.

Derek Flores – the cheeky horn wearing, hyper, physical and quick-witted Canadian will guest with Impro Melbourne in Late Nite Impro on Apr. 13th and Smells Like A Song on Apr. 14th.

The 3 Canadians are comedy/impro legends with years of sold out shows in Melbourne and across Australia. Known for their unpredictable, mischievous, irreverent and outrageous improvisation the 3 Canadians always delighted their fans.

Unfortunately the trio no longer tour as a group but that doesn't stop occasional surprise visits to the city they love Melbourne. In November 2006 Eric Amber, the blond Canadian, made a surprise appearance during Impro Melbourne's Theatresports™ season.

Why Melbourne?

“We’ve always loved Melbourne. The audiences are great and the city is alive. Plus you have Patti Stiles here now who we played with back at Loose Moose Theatre in Calgary. Walking on stage with her and Impro Melbourne is like being home. I can’t wait to tear things up.”
